

NoonArts & Lectures
and
First Unitarian Church
present

noonartsandlectures.org
lunchtime@svpal.org
sanjoseuu.org

“The Turn of the Screw”

an admission free pre opening opera lecture-demo

Friday, March 28, 2025 12:10_{PM}

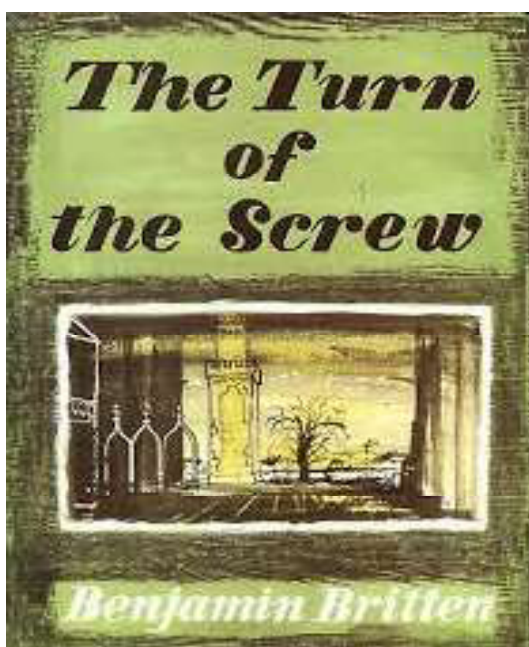

First Unitarian Sanctuary, 160 N. Third St., downtown San Jose

also.... Fri Mar 28, 1:30_{PM}: live Radio KKUP 91.5_{FM} interview featuring SJSU’s “...Screw” production conductor & director

(1913-1976)

Benjamin Britten’s opera “The Turn of the Screw” is a chilling psychological thriller where a young governess battles unseen forces to protect two children in a haunted country estate. This masterful work, based on Henry James’s novella, weaves a tale of innocence, corruption, and the supernatural through Britten’s innovative musical techniques, creating an atmosphere of unrelenting tension that will keep you on the edge of your seat.

Enjoy this full opera production presented by the SJSU School of Music on April 11 or 13 @ Hammer Theatre in downtown San Jose. Tix & info >>

Visit noonartsandlectures.org for more admission free downtown performing arts offerings.

